PROGRAMME for the PREPARATION of FORMATORS 2023

OUR PURPOSE

In response to the need to prepare sisters for the ministry of formation, the International Union of Superiors General (UISG) offers a programme in English for sisters taking up the responsibility of accompanying those in the initial stages of formation to religious life. This programme is offered in the context of the religious congregations of the participants and the needs of the church and the world in the 21st century.

Topics to be covered include

- Processes of human and spiritual growth
- Intercultural living
- Vocation and the consecrated life
- Spirituality
- Prayer, community, ministry as dimensions of consecrated life
- The vows
- Discernment
- Mission in the context of the world today
- Stages of formation and their processes

During the programme, the participants form a learning and supportive community, take on leadership responsibilities and share the uniqueness of their cultures.

The participants will have on-going mentoring and an 8-Day Directed Retreat in Nemi and the opportunity for Psychological assessment at the Institute of psychology of the Gregorian University.

They will also have an opportunity to visit significant places for prayer and reflection.

The participants will

- Be physically and psychologically healthy, self-aware, capable of reflection and interiorization
- Be open to different ways of living religious life and capable of dialogue and sharing in an intercultural context
- Have the potential to be a good formator
- Be professed of perpetual vows
- Be currently responsible for formation or already named for this role
- Have an adequate biblical and theological preparation
- Have a sufficient level of English to participate well in the programme
- Be recommended by their Superior General or Provincial as a current or future formator

The programme will offer various ways to help the participant integrate the content of the programme including personal reflection, group work and interaction, and mentoring. Each participant assumes the responsibility for her own human and spiritual growth and commits herself to active and engaged participation.

PARTICIPANTS TO DATE

From 2019 – 2022

a total of 149 participants

from 111 congregations and 95 nations

have attended the programme

“It is a very balanced programme with a wide range of topics and other opportunities. The richness of the participants coming from so many countries and religious congregations is very valuable.”

“I found the programme very enriching, especially for my own personal growth. I experienced a kind of transformation that was very satisfying. I go back a different person and well prepared for the ministry of formation.”
