

Good practices in Sustainable Agriculture: the Riimenze Community in South Sudan

“a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor” (Laudato SI’, 49)

Thursday 20 October 2022
From 2 to 4 pm Rome Time

Solidarity with South Sudan, an inter-congregational initiative of the UISG and USG, invites you to a webinar on the Sustainable Agriculture Project in Riimenze (SAP-R), South Sudan, featuring the long-time director of the project, Sister Rosa Li The Bong, RNDM. This project endeavors to secure livelihoods in a sustainable manner, especially for women, by promoting the right balance between utilization of natural resources and respect for the environment. Participants are enabled to improve nutritional practices by making the best use of their farm and household resources.

French translation is available, but must be requested no later than 6 October by emailing missionpromoter@solidarityssudan.org
