

When?

On the eve of the opening of the Synod of Catholic Bishops.

Rome | 30.09.2023

Where?

In different places around the world, as a sign of communion with the gathering in Rome.

Who is involved in the preparation?

A large number of church realities from all denominational backgrounds are joining in this event, in cooperation with the Vatican and the Churches in Rome, on the initiative of Taizé. The list of partners involved will be updated regularly on the website.

Who can take part?

The Saturday evening prayer vigil is open to everyone. Young people aged 18-35 are warmly invited to come to Rome from Friday evening to Sunday midday and will stay with parishes and Christian communities.

Gathering of the People of God

Together

Let's journey together

- with leaders of the Christian Churches
- with the people of God in all its diversity
- with those on the margins of our societies
- with those who hear the cry of the earth
- with young adults from many countries
- with people of all generations
- with experts involved in various fields
- with all who are seeking a meaning to life
- and with you as well if you decide to join the adventure!

Young adults taking part in the whole weekend should arrive Friday afternoon. They will be assigned a host parish which will offer them hospitality. On Friday and Sunday there will also be workshops and round tables for those who attend before or after Saturday.

Programme in Rome | Saturday 30 September

Meetings: themed routes, workshops and round tables

After the breakfast in the host families and communities, participants will take part in workshops and round-tables on different themes in churches of different denominations and other places.

Praise and worship

A highlight of the weekend for young adults will be a time of praise and worship in the centre of Rome at the beginning of the afternoon on Saturday.

Prayer vigil

This ecumenical prayer vigil open to everyone will take place on St Peter's Square in Rome. Pope Francis and representatives of different Churches will participate.
